What is a Parenting Resource Center?

A Parenting Resource Center is a place for you to learn to be the best possible parent you can be. We provide you with the education, resources and support you need to build a healthy family.

Everyone is Welcome!

Educational Opportunities

Parent education classes on topics including effective behavior management, communication skills, stress management, child growth/development, nutrition/health, and building self-esteem. Child-care is provided free of charge during class sessions.

Resource Libraries are available at Oconto and Oconto Falls. Parenting Resource Centers have a wide variety of parenting information available including books, pamphlets, dvd's, cd's and handouts on a variety of topics.

One-to-One Consultations—

Staff are available to provide parenting information to families. Call to set up an appointment to discuss your individual questions.

Play Group

Come and join us for games, stories, art activities and just plain fun!

"Drop-in" playgroups are an opportunity for parents (adult caregivers) and their infant through preschool children to:

relax and enjoy each other's company,
socialize with other families,
interact and share ideas with each other.

Social and learning opportunities available for parents and children.

All programs are free or provided at a nominal charge.
