

Wisconsin Farm Succession Professionals Network Meetings

Oct. 26, 27, 29 & Nov. 3, 2015

These meetings are designed to bring educators, agencies and service professionals together to discuss coordinating efforts in farm succession to better serve Wisconsin agriculture.

Building on last year's successful meetings, the Wisconsin Farm Succession Professionals Network (WIFSPN) will again offer networking meetings for professionals who find themselves addressing farm succession issues as they work with their clients. These meetings are an opportunity to learn more about farm succession issues and to network with other professionals in your geographic area.

Agenda:

- 1:00 Registration and informal networking
- 1:30 Welcome, introductions, objectives of the organization and day
- 1:45 Financial education for the farm – empowering them to make decisions
- 2:45 Family dynamics – tools to help farms structure their communications
- 3:45 Break
- 4:00 Medicaid qualifications and recovery update
- 5:00 Adjourn

Regional meetings for farm succession professionals have been organized from 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. on the following dates and locations:
